Zoo's Party for the Planet seeks Upcycled Wild Craft contestants Win a behind-the-scenes Real Close tour for two and merchandise from the zoo's Conservation Commerce

WHAT: Woodland Park Zoo is throwing a party for the planet April 5-13 to celebrate our world and its wondrous gifts of nature and wildlife. Have a chance to win a behind-the-scenes Real Close tour for two and merchandise from the zoo's Conservation Commerce.

Transform trash into treasures for the zoo's Upcycle Wild Craft Contest. Use non-recyclable items including bottle caps, old furniture, or food packaging to make artful creations that reduce waste and look wild!

Contest entries are judged in the following age categories:

- Ages 5-8
- Ages 9-13
- Ages 14-18
- Ages 19 + up

One winner will be selected in each age group and receive a Real Close tour for two people and an upcycled item from the zoo's Conservation Commerce. One of the four winners will be chosen as the overall winner and win an upgraded Conservation Commerce item.

WHEN Entries March 29–April 11 accepted at the zoo's West Entrance.
/WHERE: All entries will be displayed in the zoo's West Plaza.
