Title: Young Lady Get Lost

Hello. I am Nawal and I go to Seattle World School. I am talking about living with animals and humans. I hope readers will like my story.

A long time ago there was a young lady. She desired to go to another village by herself. Going to another village would take 24 hours. The young woman walked as much as she could. The sun went down everywhere and it became dark. The woman sat down because she was very hungry and thirsty. She cried a lot. It was almost 12:00 o'clock at night.

A lion hears sound coming from somewhere close to him. He follows the sound until he comes where the woman was sitting. When the woman saw the lion she felt very scared. The lucky part is that the lion asked the woman what happened to her. She told the lion, "please don't eat me. I am really hungry and thirsty and I am lost. I don't know where I am going." The lion said, "Hey, I will help you but you will promise me that you will not tell anybody." "I promise," said the woman. "Okay if you promise I will take you where you are going and make you survive."

The lion helps the woman and takes her where she wanted but when she saw her family she tells the people how she became safe. Sadly the lion hear hears her, "hmm she did not keep her promise so I will eat her when everybody sleeps," said the lion. At the end when everybody sleep he come and took the woman and nobody see her again.

In ZooCrew I learn about animals and coexistence with humans helping me to write my own story.
