

Gotta see them all!

Pokémon takes over zoo's holiday lights festival yet again

WHAT: Back by popular demand! Woodland Park Zoo is dropping Pokémon lures across zoo grounds and is calling all trainers to find and catch them all during the return event of Pokémon Night at WildLights presented by Sound Credit Union on Wednesday, December 14, from 5:30-8:30 p.m.

In addition to extra lures, Pokémon Night will feature exclusive Pokémon themed activities including a scavenger hunt, snowball fight in Snowmazium, and crafts and photo booth in the Rain Forest Food Pavilion.

The zoo has 15 PokéStops accessible at WildLights. The zoo will be dropping extra Pokémon lures during Pokémon Night to give guests ample opportunity to fill their Pokédex. Guests can search for PokéStops and hatch their newly caught Pokémon eggs as they walk the zoo's illuminated paths and enjoy the dazzling light displays featuring wild animals and exotic destinations.

Catch Pokémon in more ways than one with the zoo's Pokémon scavenger hunt, which pairs Pokémon with similar looking animals at the zoo. During Pokémon Night, guests are encouraged to find all seven Pokémon pairings hidden around WildLights and submit their completed entry forms to earn a prize!

After finding all the PokéStops and Pokémon pairings, guests can drop by Snowmazium and partake in an indoor Pokémon themed snowball fight. Find other members of team Mystic, Instinct or Valor and join them in an epic battle to become the most successful team in Snowmazium.

Other WildLights activities, such as the Winter Warm Up area, a ride on the zoo's decorated Historic Carousel (additional fee), and a visit from Santa's reindeer, will also be available during Pokémon Night.

WHEN: Wednesday, December 14, 5:30-8:30 p.m.
