Proceeds from BECU ZooTunes presented by Carter Subaru support the zoo's exemplary animal care program, wildlife conservation projects in the Pacific Northwest and around the world, and extraordinary experiences that inspire and empower guests to stand up for wildlife. The popular concerts are held outdoors on the vast, picturesque North Meadow of Woodland Park Zoo.

Additional sponsorship support for BECU ZooTunes presented by Carter Subaru is provided by KING 5 and The Seattle Times.

WHEN: Gates open at 4:30 p.m. Concerts begin between 5:30 and 6:00 p.m. rain or shine—no refunds or exchanges. Guests are encouraged to check their tickets for the concert's exact start times.

Bag checks will be conducted upon entry to every concert. This is a zoo enforced policy to ensure the safety of all guests. For more information about bag checks and restrictions, visit zoo.org/zootunes

TICKETS: Tickets for the newly announced shows go on sale beginning March 23 at 10:00 a.m. at zoo.org/zootunes and at zoo gates during zoo hours. A $4 processing fee per ticket is added to all online ticket sales. Tickets for previously announced shows are currently on sale.

Ticket prices at all outlets include a $2 facility fee to fund maintenance of the zoo's concert facilities. One child 12 and under per paid ticket is admitted free. Each free child will require a voucher for admission, which can be printed online with purchased tickets or picked up at purchase locations. ZooTunes concert-goers can purchase up to eight general admission tickets per show.

Member pre-sale
Woodland Park Zoo members will have the opportunity to purchase all ZooTunes tickets before the general public. The ZooTunes member pre-sale begins online only on March 21 at 10:00 a.m. Members will receive an exclusive pre-sale code by email and can purchase up to eight general admission pre-sale tickets per show.

Reserved seat upgrades
A limited number of Reserved seat tickets are available for each show. Reserved tickets provide concert-goers with premium seating (chair provided) and special parking. Upgrades must be purchased online at zoo.org/zootunes. Reserved seat tickets will sell out fast, so purchase early. Reserved tickets are valid for one entry only regardless of age; there is no additional entry for one child 12 and under with a reserved ticket. Children 12 and under require a separately purchased reserved ticket to access the reserved area.

INFO: Zoo hours May 1–September 30: 9:30 a.m.- 6:00 p.m. daily.

Woodland Park Zoo is accredited by the Association of Zoos & Aquariums and certified by the rigorous American Humane Conservation program. The Humane Certified™ seal of approval is another important validation of the zoo's long-standing tradition of meeting the highest standards in animal welfare. Woodland Park Zoo is helping to save animals and their habitats through more than 35 field projects in the Pacific Northwest and around the world. By inspiring people to care and act, Woodland Park Zoo is making a difference in our planet's future ecological health and sustainability. Free Wi-Fi is available for zoo guests, made possible through products donated by Cisco. Visit www.zoo.org and follow the zoo on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.
