Zoo animals celebrate Red, White & Zoo the wild way

WHAT: It's an animal-style picnic as hippos, otters, grizzlies, and other Woodland Park Zoo animal residents indulge in star-shaped popsicles, watermelon, corn on the cob, and other picnic fare at Red, White & Zoo on Saturday and Sunday, June 30–July 1.

The Fourth of July-themed treats are part of the zoo's excellent animal care program to help enrich the lives of the zoo's animals. The safe activities help encourage natural animal behavior, keep animals mentally and physically stimulated, and engage zoo guests.

Be sure to visit the new Assam Rhino Reserve and meet Taj and Glenn, the zoo's greater one-horned rhinos. The exhibit, which also features Asian brown tortoises and demoiselle cranes, highlights the amazing adaptations of these three species and brings to life the impact of poaching, the illegal wildlife trade and the turtle extinction crisis. Follow #RhinoLookout for information on how to support rhino care at the zoo and fund efforts to protect and defend rhino habitat from poachers.
