

Seattle's wildest holiday lights festival returns

700,000+ lights transform zoo into sparkling winter wonderland

WHAT: Come one, come all to Woodland Park Zoo's WildLights presented by Sound Credit Union! Grab the whole family and check out more than 700,000 bright and colorful lights recreating wild animals and wild places across the zoo. It's the biggest and brightest WildLights yet –the experience has expanded all the way to the South Entrance!

While taking in the vivid lights, sights, and sounds of WildLights, enjoy close-up animal encounters, faux snowball fights, delicious warm treats and so much more!

This year, guests can get warm and toasty at the many fire pits located across the zoo. To top it off, make-your-own s'mores kits are available for purchase, along with hot chocolate, fresh hot donuts and other winter favorites.

Guests 21 and older can enjoy a selection of hand crafted local beer and wine and specialty hot drinks while cozying up under the covered outdoor spaces near the Rain Forest Food Pavilion or Pacific Blue Chowder House, which will feature a selection of house-made chowders, pizza, burgers, and hot drinks. ID is required to order alcoholic beverages.

While the zoo's animals will be tucked in for the night, select indoor exhibits will be open to explore, such as the Adaptations Building, home to meerkats and nocturnal animals such as sloths and fruit bats. Get up close and personal with one of the zoo's ambassador animals, which will make appearances on weekends throughout WildLights!
