Calling all wizards and witches! Night of Magical Creatures coming to Woodland Park Zoo's WildLights

WHAT: Come one, come all to Night of Magical Creatures at Woodland Park Zoo's WildLights presented by Sound Credit Union! For one magical night, the zoo will transform into an enchanting world, brilliantly lit with more than 700,000 bright and colorful lights recreating wild animals and wild places—Lumos!

Channel your favorite character and come dressed in style, whether that's a wizard, witch or everyone's favorite half-giant. Guests are encouraged to wear their most creative and theatrically accurate wizarding attire, so find your housemates and head inside the Rain Forest Food Pavilion for Herbology class, a wand making station, and delicious drinks, snacks and more available for purchase! Then fly around zoo grounds for spellbinding photo opportunities, animal glitter tattoos and faux snowball fights in Snowmazium!

You didn't think we'd forget about the magical creatures, did you? Visit the Alvord Broadleaf Theater from 6–8 p.m. to see Woodland Park Zoo's very own incredible creatures take center stage for the evening! If you're lucky, you might even see an owl.

Guests 21 and older can enjoy a selection of hand crafted local beer and wine and specialty hot drinks while cozying up under the covered outdoor spaces near the Rain Forest Food Pavilion or Pacific Blue Chowder House, which will feature a selection of house-made chowders, pizza, burgers, and hot drinks. ID is required to order alcoholic beverages.

INFO:

To help reduce overflow parking in the surrounding neighborhoods, parking is free after 4:30 p.m. All parking lots will be open and available to the public as both entrances will be open for entry this year.

Consider taking the bus, biking, walking or carpooling. Conserving resources is one more way to help animals. For bus service to the zoo, visit www.metro.kingcounty.gov.

Fall/winter zoo hours October 1–April 30: 9:30 a.m.–4:00 p.m. daily.

Founded in 1899, Woodland Park Zoo engages more than a million visitors of all ages, backgrounds, abilities, and walks of life in extraordinary experiences with animals, inspiring them to make conservation a priority in their lives. The zoo is helping to save animals and their habitats in the wild through more than 30 field projects in the Pacific Northwest and around the world. Woodland Park Zoo is accredited by the Association of Zoos & Aquariums and certified by the rigorous American Humane Conservation program. The Humane Certified™ seal of approval is another important validation of the zoo's long-standing tradition of meeting the highest standards in animal welfare.
