

Zoo for All: Honoring Those Who Serve

Zoo honoring veterans and active military by offering free admission July 30

WHAT: Woodland Park Zoo is honoring veterans and active military members by hosting Zoo for All: Honoring Those Who Serve, a celebration of veterans and active military and their families to come enjoy the zoo. In addition to all of the zoo's engaging animal exhibits and extraordinary experiences, there will be special activities for Honoring Those Who Serve guests, including a resource fair with over 25 nonprofit organizations, a special appearance from zoo ambassador animals, a yoga and mindfulness workshop on the North Meadow led by Veterans Yoga, free scooter and wheelchair rentals and more.

During Honoring Those Who Serve, Woodland Park Zoo will extend free admission to active, reservist, and veteran U.S. military personnel or military spouses plus one guest. Regular military discount will also apply, $4 off for up to six (6) family members. Military personnel or military spouses must show valid military ID.

Zoo for All events are part of Woodland Park Zoo's greater commitment to making the zoo a place of inclusion where people of all cultures, income levels, and abilities can connect with each other and be inspired to make conservation a priority in their lives.
