

Doo you smell the holiday spirit? Holidoo is back!

Festive blend of Zoo Doo compost available during the holidays – nature's original regift!

WHAT: Woodland Park Zoo's highly poop-ular compost blend is hitting the shelves just in time for the holidays! This limited edition Holidoo consists of compost and bedding, featuring generous contributions from rhinos Taj and Glenn, hippos, giraffes, tapirs, mountain goats and more! This year's blend was crafted by Woodland Park Zoo's Dr. Doo, also known as the "Keeper of Endangered Feces," the "Princess of Poo," or the "Number 1 of Number 2!"

Got a garden enthusiast on your holiday gifting list? Holidoo's the answer! What about that person in your life who just seems to have everything? Get them some Holidoo! White Elephant party? Be the greatest gifter with a coveted bucket of Holidoo!

The festively packaged 'Doo comes in 4-gallon containers, exclusively available at ZooStores during the holiday season. But you'll want to act fast –Holidoo is only available until January (or until supplies run out!) Want to get your hands on Zoo Doo year-round? The ZooStore also has pints and 2-gallon buckets of Zoo Doo available all year.

Funds from every Holidoo and Zoo Doo purchase go directly toward supporting exemplary care for Woodland Park Zoo's 1,200+ animals, wildlife conservation projects in the Pacific Northwest and across the world, and extraordinary experiences that inspire and empower guests to stand up for wildlife. How often doo you get to say your gift actually helps save the planet?

In addition to daytime zoo hours, shop for Holidoo nightly during WildLights! The zoo's electrifying, after-hours festival features over 800,000 energy-efficient LED lights that illuminate the paths of Woodland Park Zoo through dazzling displays of wild animals and exotic destinations. WildLights runs through January 5, 2020, 5:30–8:30 p.m. nightly (WildLights will be closed December 24 and 25). For more information, visit www.zoo.org/wildlights.
