REDEEM INDIVIDUAL TICKETS IN-PERSON

If you would prefer to not use our website to reserve their tickets, we have another option! You can bring their promo code(s) to any zoo ticketing/membership window and be granted admission. The promo codes act as physical tickets for entry, and we hope that this is helpful for individuals who would be unable to reserve tickets online.

Please ensure that you bring the correct number of promo codes for all the people attending in your group. For example, if three people are attending, you will need to present two promo codes.

FAQ

I would like to select an accessibility ticket option or military ticket. Are the CAP promo codes valid for these options?

Yes! They are available for all daytime admission tickets.

I am coming at a different time than listed on my ticket. Will I be able to enter?

Yes! CAP tickets will be able to enter at a different time than stated on their ticket. For example, if the ticket is for entry on June 3rd at 10:30 a.m., and the ticket holder arrives to the zoo on June 2nd at 10:30 a.m. or June 3rd at 1:00 p.m., they will be granted entry.

If you are a one-to-one aid or attendant of guests with disabilities, do you need a CAP ticket or will you be granted entry?

No, they do not need a CAP ticket to enter. They may reserve a free one-to-one aid ticket either online or at our ticketing window.

Is this information available in other languages?

Yes! We have this information available in multiple languages. Ask your CAP organization for more info.

Is there a social story available so families will know what to expect and other accessibility resources?

Yes! Please visit our page at www.zoo.org/access for more information about accessibility resources and our social story.

Are these tickets valid for special zoo events?

No. These tickets are not valid for special zoo events. They are only valid for general admission tickets.
