

Tea With the Trees! Woodland Park Zoo Announces
Exciting New Food and Beverage Series
*Tickets for Grazing at the Zoo event series on sale today!

WHAT: Brunch on the savanna, tasty treats with bears or pancakes with penguins—Woodland Park Zoo is offering it all with a new and exciting food and beverage series this summer, Grazing at the Zoo!

This delightfully delectable new series blends delicious flavors with immersive zoo experiences. Each event offers a unique opportunity to indulge in themed menus while connecting with wildlife and learning about the zoo's conservation efforts. These exclusive gatherings invite you to experience the zoo like never before.

First up on the series' menu is Afternoon Tea in the Garden beginning May 4 in the zoo's beautiful Microsoft Pollinator Patio. Sip, unwind, and bathe in the lush greenery of the Pollinator Patio at this elegant afternoon tea experience. Nestled among the foliage and vibrant blooms, guests will enjoy a tiered selection of sweet and savory treats, from gourmet tea sandwiches to petit fours and freshly baked scones. Perfect for a Mother's Day outing, a special gathering with friends, or a serene break with loved ones, this enchanting event is a toast to nature's beauty—complete with a complimentary glass of prosecco for guests 21 and up.
